Dr. Middleton guilty of theft 5/12/72

Dr. James Middleton of Des Plaines, previously convicted on charges of sexual deviate assault and aggravated battery on a woman patient, has been found guilty on other charges of stealing building materials from a construction site. He was found guilty in Circuit Court of taking lumber and steel bars from a site at Mount Prospect Road and Oakton Street in Des Plaines. Middleton is free on bond pending appeal of a 10-year sentence in the sexual deviancy case.
